

Parents and children in games

1

Do your children play?

Parents who are gamers tend to influence their children in the habit of playing.

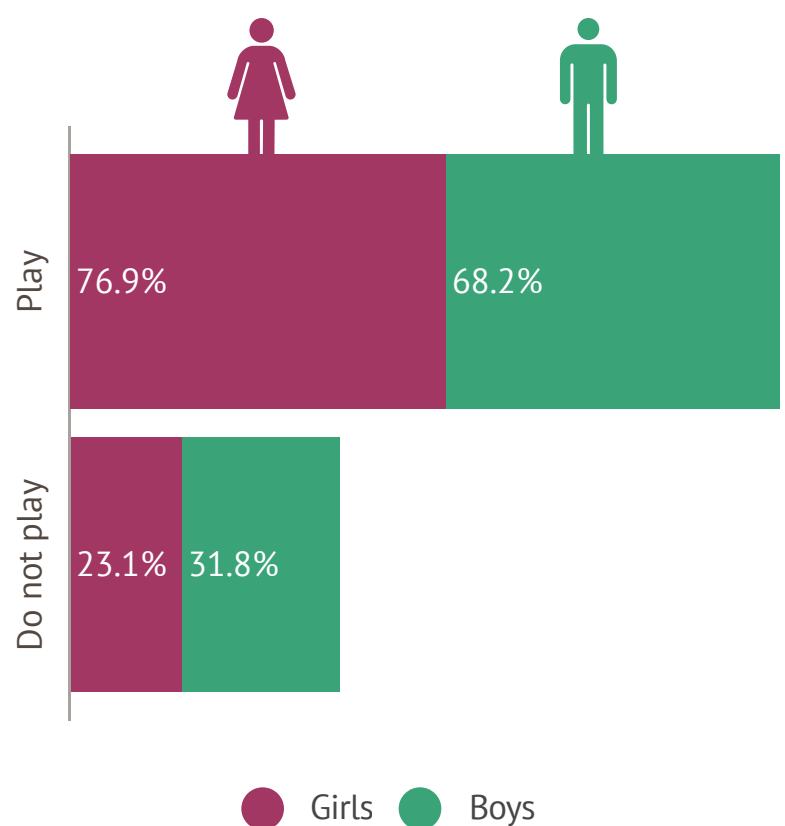

Even so, the entertainment of digital games is strong in the younger.

2

Do you play with your children?

Although boys are dominant in digital games consumption on most platforms, the parent company is prominent with their daughters.

3

Do you Consider yourself a Gamer?

A significant part of the parents do not have game as their entertainment habit, but they accompany their children in games.
